Many marriages would be better if the husband and the wife clearly understood that they are on the same side.

You will get all you want in life if you help enough other people get what they want.

Your attitude, not your aptitude, will determine your altitude.

I believe that being successful means having a balance of success stories across the many areas of your life. You can't truly be considered successful in your business life if your home life is in shambles.

Money isn't the most important thing in life, but it's reasonably close to oxygen on the "gotta have it" scale.

Every choice you make has an end result.

You can have everything in life you want, if you will just help other people get what they want.

A lot of people quit looking for work as soon as they find a job.

People often say that motivation doesn't last. Well, neither does bathing - that's why we recommend it daily.

It's not what you've got, it's what you use that makes a difference.

If you go looking for a friend, you're going to find they're very scarce. If you go out to be a friend, you'll find them everywhere.
It was character that got us out of bed, commitment that moved us into action, and discipline that enabled us to follow through.

Expect the best. Prepare for the worst. Capitalize on what comes.

If you want to reach a goal, you must "see the reaching" in your own mind before you actually arrive at your goal.

A goal properly set is halfway reached.

Positive thinking will let you do everything better than negative thinking will.

You were born to win, but to be a winner, you must plan to win, prepare to win, and expect to win.

The foundation stones for a balanced success are honesty, character, integrity, faith, love and loyalty.

Money won't make you happy... but everybody wants to find out for themselves.

If you learn from defeat, you haven't really lost.
Sometimes adversity is what you need to face in order to become successful.

You cannot climb the ladder of success dressed in the costume of failure.

Failure is a detour, not a dead-end street.

Remember that failure is an event, not a person.

Every obnoxious act is a cry for help.

You cannot tailor-make the situations in life but you can tailor-make the attitudes to fit those situations.

Little men with little minds and little imaginations go through life in little ruts, smugly resisting all changes which would jar their little worlds.

When you are tough on yourself, life is going to be infinitely easier on you.

Success is the maximum utilization of the ability that you have.

You can make positive deposits in your own economy every day by reading and listening to powerful, positive, life-changing content and by associating with encouraging and hope-building people.

You cannot perform in a manner inconsistent with the way you see yourself.

You do not pay the price of success, you enjoy the price of success.

Rich people have small TVs and big libraries, and poor people have small libraries and big TVs.

Lack of direction, not lack of time, is the problem. We all have twenty-four hour days.

When obstacles arise, you change your direction to reach your goal; you do not change your decision to get there.

You don't have to be great to start, but you have to start to be great.

The chief cause of failure and unhappiness is trading what you want most for what you want right now.

A lot of people have gone further than they thought they could because someone else thought they could.
There are no traffic jams on the extra mile.

You are what you are and you are where you are because of what has gone into your mind. You change what you are and you change where you are by changing what goes into your mind.

If you aim at nothing, you will hit it every time.

The more you are grateful for what you have the more you will have to be grateful for.

Motivation gets you going and habit gets you there.

If standard of living is your major objective, quality of life almost never improves, but if quality of life is your number one objective, your standard of living almost always improves.

You can't hit a target that you can't see. If you don't know where you are going, you will probably end up somewhere else. You have to have goals.

Everybody says they want to be free. Take the train off the tracks and it’s free—but it can’t go anywhere.
It's not how far you fall, but how high you bounce that counts.

What you get by achieving your goals is not as important as what you become by achieving your goals.

The greatest of all mistakes is to do nothing because you think you can only do a little.

If you can dream it, you can achieve it.
